GENEROUS DONATIONS THESE.

HELP FOR GALVESTON SUFFERERS.

Liberal Gift of a Greensboro Firm—Help Must Come Immediately or Not at All. The Telegram Forwarded First Contributions Today—Greensboro Should Send a Liberal Donation.

Greensboro should contribute liberally to the Galveston flood sufferers. In response to The Telegram's appeal yesterday between seventy and eighty dollars have been contributed. These have been voluntary.

The Odell Hardware Company this morning sent up its check for $50, which was very liberal indeed. The check was accompanied by the following letter:

To the Editor of The Telegram:

We take pleasure in handing you our check for fifty dollars, for the benefit of the sufferers of the flood. It is certainly fitting that our city should join promptly in the effort now being made to afford whatever relief may be possible, to those upon whom this great calamity has fallen. We trust this opportunity to show that we recognize our obligation to our brothers in distress may not be passed by without a most generous response from all our people.

Yours truly,
ODELL HARDWARE CO.

The need is immediate, and if anyone desires to contribute he should do so at once. Hand in contributions this afternoon or tomorrow morning. So far the following has been contributed:

Mr. Howard, manager of the Western Union, is instructed by his company to extend free service to parties sending money to the relief of sufferers. The Telegram therefore uses this service, which enables it to forward all money free of charge.

THE TELEGRAM SENDS FIRST FUNDS.

The Telegram today forwarded the first funds from Greensboro as shown by the following receipt:

"Received of The Telegram sixty-six dollars for the Galveston flood sufferers—forwarded by wire today.

CITY NATIONAL BANK."

By Lee H. Battle, Cashier.
Sept. 13, 1900.

Other donations recognized above were received since and will be included in check tomorrow.

The New Railroad Eating House.

This morning's Charlotte Observer has the following concerning Mr. D. R. Hufnagles' new railroad eating house at this place, which is nearing completion:

"Gresham & Company are building a beautiful eating house at Greensboro. It is made of pressed brick and trimmed in granite. The building will be three stories high and will contain 30 sleeping rooms and well-equipped dining department, the floor of which is to be of tile and the ceiling of steel. The building will be heated with steam and lighted with electricity. The house is ready now and will open the 1st of October. Mr. J. P. Sanders, of Charlotte, is to be the manager. The Gresham eating houses are famous."

Boil the Well Water.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I learn that a large number of our citizens are drinking water from wells, which until recently, have not been used for a long time. Such water may be dangerous, even though the wells have been recently cleaned, and should be thoroughly boiled to make it absolutely safe.

THE MINSTRELS LAST NIGHT.

The Show Was Clean and Breezy and Pleased the Audience.

The Al. G. Fields Minstrel Company opened the season at the Academy of Music last night with an entertainment that pleased the audience, which is enough to say that the performance was an entire success. The verdict of those present was that the show was clean and breezy.

The members of the company all handle their parts well, and some of them are high-class artists. Probably not as many jokes are told as in some other minstrel, but nothing stale or dull is repeated.

Some splendid voices are in the company and the songs are new and bright. Sam Goldman, Jake Welby, Will Hackett, and Handel Hastings, the English baritone, made special hits. All the singers responded to encores.

Will Hackett and Jake Welby, as senator and judge in "An Echo of the Post," caught the crowd and were liberally applauded.

The specialties were probably the best ever seen with a minstrel company in Greensboro. The Faust family created a sensation with their wonderful acrobatic performances, introducing several new features.

The company is a good one and does not deserve the criticisms that have been made of it in some places.

SWALLOWED POISON AND DIED.

CLAUDIA JONES' FATAL MISTAKE.

Young Colored Woman Thought She Was Taking Quinine and Swallowed Veratrine, a Deadly Poison—Mistake Discovered Immediately, But Too Late to Save the Victim's Life—The Poison Had Been Prescribed for Neuralgia.

A mistake made in taking a dose of medicine this morning cost Claudia Jones, a young colored woman of this city, her life. Thinking she was taking quinine, she swallowed a small portion of veratrine, a deadly poison, and died two and a half hours later.

The young woman was 18 or 20 years old and resided with her mother on West McCulloch street. About 8 o'clock this morning she wished to take a dose of quinine, and going to the mantel, took down a small vial which she supposed contained the drug. Instead of this, however, it was filled with veratrine, which has an appearance very much like quinine. She swallowed a small portion of the poison, detecting her mistake almost immediately.

The young woman became desperately sick and two physicians were called to her relief. By the time they reached her, however, the drug had taken such a hold on her system that it was impossible to save her. By means of artificial respiration life was prolonged for two and a half hours.

Veratrine is a drug that is sometimes applied externally in severe cases of neuralgia, and it was for this purpose that it had been prescribed for some member of the family. The label had been removed and there was nothing on the outside of the bottle to indicate that the contents were poison.

The Quicksteps Too Strong.

Charlotte Observer.

The Quicksteps were altogether too strong for the Greensboro team, and showed their superiority for the third time yesterday by defeating the visitors by a score of 13 to 10, thus winning every contest in the series of three games.

The Quicksteps now have the $100 in gold for a division. The prize cup also comes into their possession, but this trophy will be played for annually by the two teams.

It is right to add that both the Greensboro and Charlotte teams played clean, good ball in a sportsmanlike manner.

Judge Shepherd's Hearing.

There have been no developments of special interest in the hearing of the tax assessment case today. Among the witnesses examined were Messrs. John S. Michaux and J. M. Wolfe, of this city. They testified that in Guilford county the assessors have a rule of assessing property at about three-fourths of its value.

Mr. J. C. Morris has bought a lot from Mr. David White on Dewey street, on the Southside, upon which he will erect a residence.

SHOOTING VANDALS.

96 KILLED IN THEIR TRACKS.

FIRM WORK OF GALVESTON POLICE

Unable to Keep Down Looting, Robbing and Mutilation, Military Officers Shoot Men in Their Tracks—Fourteen Negroes and Two White Men Killed Last Night. Destitute Are Being Cared for—Work of Gathering up the Bodies Along the Coast By Wire to The Telegram.

Galveston, Sept. 13.—The relief measures organized here are running more smoothly than heretofore. The destitute are receiving supplies at the various depots. The sick are receiving the best of care, the physicians giving their services free.

Reports continue to come in from nearby towns on the coast and mainland towns telling of the destruction and loss of life. The coast for miles on the island are said to be covered with corpses. One man aided in burying a hundred bodies a few miles north of Virginia Point. Parties are out in every direction engaged in the same duty.

Robbery and the mutilation of bodies and the looting of houses has become so common that last night fourteen negroes and two white men, caught in the act of robbing, were shot dead in their tracks. This makes a total of ninety-six men shot by troops for vandalism.

WRECKED FOR ALL TIME TO COME.

New York 13.—At Austin, Tex., this morning Col. Wortham, who went to Galveston as the special appointee of Adjutant-General Terry to investigate the true condition there, reported as follows to the governor:

"I am convinced that Galveston is practically wrecked for all time to come. Fully seventy-five per cent. of the business portion of the city is irreparably and most deplorably demolished and wrecked. At least the same percentage of damage was found in the residence portion."

REPAIRING RAILROAD DAMAGE.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 13.—John J. Moody, a member of the committee sent to take charge of the relief station at Texas City, reports 56 bodies buried. The dead are lying around for an area of twenty miles. The residents of the city are too busy burying the dead to look after their personal effects.

STATEMENT BY AN EDITOR.

"Galveston, Tex., Sept. 12.

"To Charles S. Diehl, General Manager Associated Press, Chicago:

"A summary of the conditions now prevailing at Galveston is more than human intellect can master. Briefly stated, the damage to property is anywhere between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. The loss of life cannot be computed. No lists could be kept and all is simple guess work. Those thrown out to sea and buried on the ground, wherever found, will reach the horrible total of at least 3,000 souls.

"My estimate of the loss on the island of the city of Galveston and the immediate surrounding district is between 4,000 and 5,000 deaths. I do not make this statement in fright or excitement. The whole story will never be told, because it cannot be told. The necessities of those living are too total. Not a single individual escaped property loss. The property on the island is wrecked; fully one-half is totally swept out of existence altogether.

"What our needs are can be computed by the world at large by the statement herewith submitted much better than I could possibly summarize them. The help must be immediate.

"Manager of Galveston News."

Will Have Water of Their Own.

Nearly all the manufacturing concerns in South Greensboro are having wells dug, from which to draw their water supply. The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company, Guilford Lumber Company, Pitts and Monroe, the Brooks Manufacturing Company and the Excelsior Manufacturing Company are all hastening to get water from wells of their own.

It is probable that the digging of these wells will diminish the water company's income considerably. Each firm formerly paid $48 p r year for city water.

A Delightful Entertainment.

The "Dime Musicale" last evening, at the charming home of Mrs. Gaston W. Ward, was quite a success financially, as well as a most pleasant social affair. There were twelve or more numbers on the program, consisting of vocal solos and quartettes, violin and piano duets, recitations, etc.

The whole was most charmingly rendered, and every one voted it a delightful entertainment.

Horse Thief Brought Back.

Policeman Merritt went to Graham this morning for the thief that stole Wheeler Brothers' horse and buggy, returning with him on the noon train. It develops that the thief is A. B. Coleman, a young married man who lives between Burlington and Elon College. It is said that he recently married a widow, making a farm by the transaction.

Well Known Insurance Men in Town.

INSTANT DEATH ON THE RAIL.

JACK SNIPES, COLORED, THE VICTIM.

Driving a Carriage Across the Summit Avenue Crossing, He Was Run Over and Instantly Killed by a Passing Train—His Body Terribly Mangled—The Horse Also Killed and the Vehicle Demolished—The Scene of the Accident a Dangerous Place.

The expected has happened. A human life has been lost at the dangerous railroad crossing on Summit avenue.

The accident occurred last night shortly after 10 o'clock and the victim was Jack Snipes, colored, the driver of a street carriage. His carriage was struck by the northbound local passenger train, the vehicle being demolished and the driver and the horse instantly killed.

Just how the accident occurred will probably never be known. It is supposed that Snipes had carried a passenger to some place and was on his return when he met his fate. The train struck the carriage just as it was squarely across the track, knocking it off some distance and making a complete wreck of it. The horse was struck on the hip and thrown against an embankment, falling back against the track with one leg broken and his body otherwise mangled. The animal expired within a few minutes.

The unfortunate driver was apparently struck on the head and shoulders. The moving train carried his body up the track a distance of about 50 yards, strewn portion of his skull and brains along the crossties. The train was stopped as quickly as possible, but the man was dead when his body was reached. The mangled and bleeding corpse, almost headless, presented a gruesome sight.

The body was turned over to Aaron Mendenhall, the colored undertaker, to be prepared for burial.

The accident was witnessed by some colored women, who say that the engineer gave no warning whistle until the train was within a few yards of the carriage. Others, however, say repeated whistle blows were heard for quite a distance.

The dead man leaves a wife and several children. He moved to Greensboro from Burlington some time ago.

The horse and carriage were the property of L. W. Woods, the barber. This is the second horse he has lost during the present year, the other having been shot several months ago.

The scene of the accident is a very dangerous place, where the need of a watchman has often been pointed out.

TO HELP THE SUFFERERS.

Northern Papers' Relief Trains Hurrying to Galveston.

The Philadelphia North American's Galveston relief train passed through Greensboro at 11:40 o'clock today. It carried three cars of provisions and a number of physicians and nurses to the relief of the flood sufferers. The train was being run on the fastest possible schedule, and did not stop at the station here.

The New York World's relief train was expected through here last night, but went by another route. The Journal's train went by way of Chicago and Cincinnati.

The Philadelphia North American is the Hon. Wharton Barker's paper.

SOLDIERS BRAVE.

Four Men Who Will Try the Fortunes of War—No More Colored Recruits Wanted.

The Greensboro recruiting station is doing its share toward strengthening Uncle Sam's army. The following new soldiers were sent off today at noon: Matthew R. Meacham, of Lumberville, N. C., and Elmer P. Newsum, of Kins, N. C. They both go to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and will be attached to the artillery service.

This evening Nick Cornelius, of China Grove, and John Trice, of Hillsboro, will leave for El Paso, Texas, where they will join a company of colored soldiers for service with the Twenty-fifth Infantry in the Philippines. This regiment is now full and no more colored recruits are wanted.

Attention, Firemen!

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Fire Department on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, the 14th instant. All members are requested to be present promptly.

THE SENATORIAL CANVASS ON.

CARR AND WADDELL ON WAR PATH.

Mrs. Simmons Operated on for Appendicitis—Crops are so Bad People Hate to Look at Them—A Large Lot of State News Gossip.

Raleigh, Sept. 13.—W. E. Jones, a dry goods and notions dealer here, yesterday filled a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, giving his liabilities as $22,973. and assets $12,454. Among the assets the chief items are stock in store $4,200, insurance $1,750. The principal creditor is Charles Broadway Rous, $13,000.

The State charters the Hamilton Trousers Company, of Hamilton, Martin county, capital $10,000.

Mrs. F. M. Simmons was yesterday operated on for appendicitis in a hospital here.

Col. A. M. Waddell has begun his national canvass. He started to-day, in the extreme west. He is a delightful speaker. Col. Julian S. Carr was here yesterday. His friends say he is making remarkable progress in his campaign.

The First Presbyterian church here is now complete with the exception of the principal stained-glass window, the one which is to be a memorial to Rev. Dr. William McPheeters, the church's first pastor.

Mr. "Pete" Murphy, ex-legislator from Rowan, was here yesterday, and said he regarded the weather as broiling, he having come directly from the "sapphire country," where heat has no terrors. He says regarding the campaign in the Ninth district that Crawford is literally wiping the earth with Moody; such is the popular comment of people who hear the joint discussions.

The Raleigh Telephone Company, which is the new one here (the third) is rapidly putting up its wires. Today it ruined five miles of cable, weighing 24,000 pounds. In each cable are 300 copper wires, with a lead covering. The diameter of the cable is 2 inches.

J. A. Giles, the Republican, and J. J. Jenkins, the Populist nominee for Congress in this district, declare they will not come down, but Democrats say there is no telling what sort of a combination will be made, at any time. The Republicans say they intend to poll every negro vote for Giles; the Populists say that all their people will vote for Jenkins.

People who travel by rail or in private conveyance say they dislike to look at the crops, so pitiful are the latter; some scorched and withered. The dryness of the earth, that is the depth to which it is dry, is remarkable, ditchers say.

There will be at least 275 people at the opening of the blind institution here.

The finishing touches are being given the new "Wiley" public school building. In all respects it is a model.

The artist-decorator of the interior of the Raney free library has completed his work, and it is the handsomest in Raleigh.

The dedicatory services at the First Presbyterian church, which are to culminate Sunday, began last evening with a service of prayer and praise, conducted by Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel, the pastor. This evening Rev. A. R. Shaw, of Henderson, preaches.

Some of the Facts Brought Out.

Charlotte News.

The Greensboro Telegram is giving its readers a symposium on compulsory education. It embraces facts as to education in the states and letters from educators and business men all over this State. Some of the facts brought out are presented below:

Thirty-one states have compulsory education; 15 have not. Of the 15 eleven are in the South.

Labor Commissioner Lacy tried to get the sentiment of the people of this State on compulsory education.

"Do you favor compulsory education?" was asked, and 274 farmers answer "Yes," 86 "No," and 18 do not answer. In the trade, 290 answer "Yes," 41 "No," and 33 do not answer. In the miscellaneous factories, 133 answer "Yes," 10 "No," and 20 do not answer."

TALKING OF PURE WATER.

OLD RESIDENT GIVES SOME FACTS.

He Says That There is no Use Talking About Getting Pure Water From a Surface Source, and Thinks That Tube Wells are the Only Thing That Can Give What We Want.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I am glad to see it announced in The Telegram that there seems to be a growing sentiment in favor of artesian wells. Nothing better could happen to the community, of a material nature, than for such a sentiment to become epidemic.

I was much disappointed a few weeks ago when it was announced that the town board had actually bought the water works plant and system. Such a makeshift, it seemed to me then was very shortsighted and wholly inexcusable, and would have been a bad trade at half the amount agreed upon. And if there is any expedient known among "desperate remedies" which can be resorted to, to rescind this bargain—at least on the pre-ent basis—let the Board adopt it at once.

I call to mind some "subrosa" remarks I heard made by an old citizen when the system was first installed years ago, and a comment of ridicule made by Col. ———— somebody who did the work, as to the efficiency of the plant.

But it is passing strange that intelligent men will talk about and contend for the idea of "pure water" "absolutely pure," with a surface system with the "filth and offscouring" of the earth, caught in a "settling basin," laden to saturation and reeking with the worst form of filth that can be conceived. A little reflection would seem to convince the most heedless. That the washings of all forms and kinds of decayed and decaying vegetables and animal matter would make such a supply as nasty and as dangerous as could well be conceived. Indeed, if it were the object of an organized company to furnish the most objectionable water supply, could they resort to any device to get so large a quantity and have it any worse. If man, the GENUS HOMO were not so nearly allied in physical peculiarities and habits to such filth devouring animals as hogs, chickens and possums, no generation of his race could stand the poison of a surface water pond for one season.

I hope the town board will no longer consider the subterfuge of surface water ponds. It is all bad, unmistakably bad, no matter where or by whom adopted.

This brings us to the proper and legitimate supply—artesian wells. Let the board investigate and operate along this line at once. I have within the year traveled across several States and have come upon many of these in operation. I was told by a hotel proprietor in one town where I stopped that there were thirty-five within the corporate limit. The next day I saw a number of these playing and tossing a column of water high in the air. It was a sight to make the guzzler of mill pond sloop ashamed of himself and his town. This is the sort that may be legitimately termed "pure"—as nearly "absolutely pure" as can be obtained.

In the city of Savannah, Ga., I found they had recently put in an extensive system. They had bored—not one or two—but a dozen ten inch wells in a group. Just kept on increasing the number until they got all the water they needed. This in a city of 50 or 60 thousand people. It was not only pure and good, but a luxury and a benediction to the people who had for generations been living, and dying, on the most nauseating sloop that ever cursed an American city.

What's the conclusion? Let it be done here. If we can't get an artesian flow we can get all the "bored wells," deep and big and numerous enough to give a supply of the "Simon pure" article. The Savannah system referred to above cost less than $40,000. I have it in black and white from the city engineer whom I know personally, and then to think of $87,500 (!) for this plant and $100,000 more for immediate supplement! It is preposterous and insanely unreasonable. Our town Board and our people need information on the subject. Some approximation of what has been done elsewhere can be done here. I saw an Artesian well in Montgomery, Ala., that sent up a six column, equal in force to any hydrant in Greensboro at highest pressure. There are between three and four hundred wells in this State, but I doubt if our people know it.

Can't be bored here? At one point in Pennsylvania there is one four thousand feet deep. That's a mile. The deepest one in the world is at Pesh, Germany, six thousand feet.

"They say," tell us that it can't be done here. Bosh! Rot!! With such possibilities within our reach as I have above referred to, I do sincerely hope the city fathers will invest no $100,000 in another filth reeking, death dealing pond to give out when another dry spell comes.

I can't hope to witness much more of Greensboro's material improvement. Its strides are becoming too rapid for the tottering steps of an old man rapidly on the down grade. But the installment of a bountiful supply of pure water for its present and future generations, without fail and out of the reach of contamination, is the biggest, foremost and most sincere wish of

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE ACME OF PERFECTION

IN BOYS' CLOTHING IS THE

"Grindstone Brand"

Which is superior to any other make on the market. The pants are made with double seats and knees; that is, the material from which they are made is doubled in the seat and knees. The manufacturers of the "Grindstone Brand" do not put in lining and call them double seat and knee pants, as manufacturers of some other pants do. The coat is neat and nobby—double-breasted and square cut. These suits are wear resisting and just the thing for strong, growing manly boys. They will wear longer, look better and give better service in every respect than any other line of boys' clothing made.

We have these suits in all colors for boys from 4 to 17 years of age. Bring or send your boy to us and have him fitted up for the fall and winter. Each suit has a "Grindstone" button in the lapel of the coat and a good knife in the pocket. These are not sold, but given as a present to the boys.

We handle these goods exclusively in Greensboro, and guarantee every suit sold. Remember this.

A STREET CAR LINE?

What has become of Greensboro's contemplated street railway? For some time nothing has been heard of this very important subject. Of course our hands are pretty well full at this time with the matter of water, but rain will be along pretty soon and the pressure will be relieved. Then the question of water will be settled at leisure.

The Telegram has been informed privately that more than one gentleman has a little thing up his sleeve which he hopes to make something of, but it is all very indefinite and may come to naught. Our people fondly hoped that ere this there would have been a car line in course of construction. This is the next great forward movement for the city. There is nothing within our reach that would mean so much, and it is to be hoped that our people who can do so will ere long take up the matter with the determination to have a line in operation.

WITHDRAWAL UNLIKELY.

The negotiations regarding the withdrawal of the troops of the allies from Pekin in compliance with Russia's request, have dragged on till now, when it appears that there will not be a retreat at all. A press dispatch of last night from London says:

Statements were current in the European capitals last evening that all the powers had replied to the Russian proposition; that Great Britain and Germany had declined to evacuate Pekin; that Austria and Italy had decided to be guided by Germany's decision, and that the other powers had agreed to a more or less modified withdrawal. The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post claims to know that the allies will only withdraw to the outside walls of the capital city, where they will continue to dominate Pekin in a military sense.

And one from Berlin says that the "German Foreign Office confirms the report that all the powers have answered the Russian proposal. It considers that if Russia would actually withdraw her troops from Pekin, of which there are no present indications, the United States would certainly follow."

We have suspected that the peace negotiations would be conducted in Pekin.

The country is coming to the aid of the Galveston sufferers with prompt liberality. Different nearby cities are sending provisions, while those from a distance are sending money, which at present is the great need. The provisions supplied the first pressing needs, and now the committee has 25,000 persons to be taken care of. While contributions are being made by cities and towns, large contributions have been made by individuals and corporations, the Standard Oil Company and the St. Louis Commercial Club each giving $10,000, and the Huntington interest $5,000. Governor Sayers received over $100,000 in contributions yesterday.

Winston and Salisbury are among the towns that are able to sympathize with Greensboro in its water famine, the supply of these towns running short also. In his report to the Aldermen of Greensboro, Mr. Samuel M. Gray, the expert employed by them, states that the strength of a water supply should be judged by the minimum capacity, instead of the average capacity. This being so because of the fact that the maximum demand might come at the time of the minimum capacity. If this is the proper basis of an estimate, what is a plant worth whose minimum capacity is likely to be next to nothing during a severe drought?

Band Tickets Worth $1.50.

Season tickets for the Gate City Band's course of concerts are sold for $1.50 each instead of $1.00, as published in yesterday's Telegram. They are well worth double the price. Not more than enough to comfortably fill the Academy of Music will be sold, so no one may be afraid of the building being overcrowded.

ABSENT TREATMENT.

The Woman Had Faith In It and Was Cured.

"My wife solemnly affirms that she will get a divorce if I say anything about it," said Jones with a smile. "But it is too good to keep, so here goes. Mrs. Jones had been ailing for some time, and, falling into the hands of one of the neighbors who is a faith curist, she became imbued with that peculiar belief. I laughed at her, but she remained firm and said she was convinced that she could be cured only through faith. As her illness was nothing serious I said nothing more, congratulating myself that I was ahead what a doctor would have charged her."

"It ran along for some time while my wife continued to gain, and at last she announced that she was fully cured. 'Now, then, John Henry,' said she, 'I never again wish to hear you say anything about mind cure being all imaginable. I am sure that I would have been a dead woman if I hadn't taken the treatment that I did. And to think he never set eyes on me!'"

"He never what?" I gasped.

"Set eyes on me! I took the absent treatment. I sent Professor Fake $5 to treat me by his famous absent treatment."

"Do you mean to say," said I, "that you sent a fakir $5 to treat you?"

"That's just what I did! And to think the most wonderful thing about it was that I was aware the moment that he received my letter and opened it, although he was a thousand miles from me! Why, I commenced gaining right from that moment! It is simply wonderful! You can't deny that I am a well woman, and all through the wonderful absent treatment that I received."

"I should have said something right then and there had I not heard the postman's whistle and gone to the door to get my mail. There was a letter for my wife from the dead letter office, and when she opened it out dropped her letter to Professor Fake. She had misdirected it, and the fakir had never received it. She says—but on second thought I hadn't better tell you what she says."—Detroit Free Press.

PECULIAR COURSE OF THE STORM.

Originating in the West Indies, and Instead of Going up to the North and East in the Usual Course, it Rushed Across the Gulf and Swept Galveston Away.

Charlotte Observer.

When the recent storm which wrecked Galveston originated in the West Indies, there were indications that it would take approximately the course usually pursued by such storms and that it would strike the Atlantic coast. The Weather Bureau gave warnings accordingly and awaited results. It was soon seen that the storm was taking an eccentric and altogether unexpected course. It was lost altogether for several days and when again heard from was on the Gulf coast, instead of up about Hatteras.

The storm was not more severe than hundreds of others that have occurred, and but for the fact that Galveston, a city built on a low island sand bar, was directly in its path, it would have come and gone without having attracted unusual attention, or at least no more than attends the average West Indian hurricane. The storm originated on August 31, near the island of Martinique, and moved slowly in a north-west direction, passing immediately to the south of the island of Jamaica, on September 2nd. Thence it took a northerly course and on September 5th crossed the western end of Cuba between Mantanzas and Havana. This was the turning point, there it was expected the storm would veer to the north and east and take up the Atlantic coast, but instead it went almost in a direct line across the Gulf of Mexico to Galveston. It reached that city on September 8, striking it with the directness of an arrow, and splitting off, a small portion of the storm was diverted to the north and died out very shortly, but the storm centre continued on a straight course, almost passing about one mile to the south of Houston, on September 9. Rushing on with diminishing force, it brushed Fort Worth and reached Oklahoma City on September 10.

In its eccentric course of about 2,000 miles, the storm grazed islands and swerved around cities, touching no land except the western end of Cuba, crossing that island at a point where probably few towns and no cities were struck, then making a direct line across the Gulf for Galveston. A course of a mile or two to the north or south, and that city would have escaped the greater part of the force of the gale. It is perhaps the first time on record that Galveston was directly in the path of a hurricane. It had been brushed before, but it had never felt the full force of a storm centre, and that Galveston, of all the places along the line of the great storm should have been the only city to feel its force to any great extent, is one of the peculiarities of the hurricane.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

The Man Who Worried.

"Oh, if I might put grief away
And bid adieu to care,"
The man who worried sighed one day,
"The world would be so fair!
But peace avoids my yearning breast,
And happiness goes by;
Ah, shall I ever find the rest
I long for ere I die?"

"Why grieve?" the sage who heard replied.
"Has not your toil availed?
The ones you love are by your side;
Where have your efforts failed?
I see around you luxuries
That many a man would deem
The rich and restful properties
Of some enchanting dream."

"My efforts have been fairly paid,
My woes are not alone
From errors I myself have made
Or chances that are flown,
But there's my neighbor! Day by day
He mounts—his fortunes grow;
How can I drive my gloom away
While he outstrips me so?"
—Chicago Times-Herald.

That Boy.

"Mamma, does money make the man?"
"I am sorry to say it does sometimes, Tommy."
"Money will make a man go anywhere, won't it?"
"I suppose so."
"If it was down in Cuba, would money make a man go to raising mangoes?"
"Don't bother me."
"Do monkeys eat mangoes, mamma?"
"I presume so. I wish you wouldn't talk so much."
"Then, if money makes the man go to raising mangoes, and monkeys eat mangoes, don't the monkeys make the mango go?"
"Whack! Whack!"
"Ouch!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Natural Wonder.

Buenos Ayres seems to have the largest "rocking stone" yet discovered. It is situated on the slope of the mountain of Tandil, in the southern part of the province, and measures 90 feet long by 18 feet broad and is 24 feet high. Its bulk is 5,000 cubic feet, and it weighs at least 25 tons. Nevertheless, it is so beautifully poised that a single person can set it rocking. When the wind blows from the southeast, the stone, which is pyramidal in form, sways to and fro on its foundation like the branches of a tree.

Butter Tests.

Some of the old time tests of butter cows before the Babcock was invented and before the days of absolute accuracy in work were extremely fallacious. An early test on record reports 21 pounds of butter from 121 pounds of milk. To produce this would require milk with 15 per cent of butter fat, something which has never been heard of as a normal product.—New England Farmer.

Cow Pasture.

The Northwest Farmer says cows should be kept by themselves and given the best pasture. When they are running on the same pasture with horses, sheep and pigs, they don't have a fair chance. The dry stock monopolize all the nice, fresh bites so essential to a good flow of milk. Calves worry them in the field and are better out of sight at milking time.

ECZEMA'S ITCH IS TORTURE.

Eczeema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured. Eczeema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes nor other external applications do any real good, for as long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.

BAD FORM OF TETTER.

"For three years I had Tetters on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful, and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetters had progressed too far to be cured, and they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble."—Mrs. L. B. JACKSON, 1414 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other ailments. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26. I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

WINE OF CARDUI

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—some times even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

KITCHEN ECONOMY.

How to Make Two Good Dishes--Suggestions For Young Housewives.

It is common for young housewives to believe that because nothing is allowed to go to waste in their kitchens the strictest economy is being observed. With this in view, and no end of using left overs in mind, expensive meats are purchased without regard to the quantity required. But porterhouse or sirloin steak or legs of spring lamb are no better for stews, meat pies, croquettes, souilles, ragouts or casseroles than are the cheaper cuts. Neck and shoulder pieces are equally delicious and cost 50 per cent less. The wise housekeeper consequently buys her roasts and steaks carefully, planning as closely as possible to have little left after the meal for which she provides them, and for her entrees purchases the equally juicy, fully as nourishing, but less costly meats.

To make a ragout, boil a piece of the hump or round of beef, or of the fore-quarter of mutton or of veal until it is nearly done. Let it get cold and cut it into small pieces. Dust them with flour, salt and pepper; put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan and when it bubbles add the meat. Cook until it browns. Add the water in which the meat was first boiled and cook for two or three hours. Then add a can of small mushrooms and stir into the boiling mixture a tablespoonful of flour that has been rubbed smooth in a little cold water and cook again for ten minutes. Place in the center of a platter and arrange around it a border of potato. Currant jelly, a tablespoonful of curry powder or a trace of cayenne may be used to vary the seasoning.

A delicious fricassee of lamb may be made by cutting the neck and shoulder into small pieces, dredging it with flour which has been seasoned with salt and pepper and sauteing it in butter until it is brown. The next step is to add to it hot water to more than cover it and cook slowly until the meat falls from the bones. Remove the bones, return the meat to the stewpan, add a slice of onion, a small tomato and cook for half an hour. Remove the onion, put the meat in the center of the platter and arrange dumplings around it. Serve the sauce, of which there should be plenty, in a gravy boat separately.

A Gastronomic Cyclone.

All men and women eat. If they don't, they won't last long, and no one need worry as to whether they count for much or not. But good eaters are usually very depend-on-able. By good eaters I do not mean large eaters or greedy eaters, though I may include some of both, but I mean the men and women who enjoy what they eat and show no disposition, either from dyspepsia or other form of indigestion, to quarrel with their food.

Gluttons, however, are not very lovely. I sat at table once with a woman at a summer resort who every day for dinner ate 12 ears of corn from the cob. That is more than the regulation mid-day feed for a horse. And in the operation she greased her hands and her cheeks, and every now and again her nose was decorated with the well buttered grains. She was a Cht, and at the end of the table she bred a famine that it took weeks to relieve. And she was in no wise not by any means a bad looking woman, but in action--in action at the table--she was a kind of human cyclone, "saving desolation in her path. She had had three husbands and is a widow again. What became of the poor men I never knew. Maybe she ate them--Joba Gilmer Speed in Chatterbox.

The native dress of the better class of Japanese of both sexes is a loose wrapper, open at the chest and at the waist confined by a girdle.

Look These Up.

In many educational journals nowadays we see pronunciation tests, catch words, etc., which may be valuable for technical use and yet not being needed every day in everyday talk are, like certain folks I know, chiefly interesting on public occasions. I should like to put down here a list of words that are very generally mispronounced.

Everybody knows how to pronounce them perhaps, but being such common little things, mere street waifs, with unwashed faces, nobody takes the trouble to "speak them fair." Now, to know what is our duty and fail to do it is a much more culpable thing than not to do it because we don't know what our duty is. So here they are, little, commonplace creatures, which are mispronounced every day:

Toward, again, bade, brooch, apricot, often, catch, hearth, aye, lien, greasy, sew, scarce, years, idea, area, bouquet, ague, bleat, rise (noun), aretic, shone, route, gaunt, canine, juvenile, infidel, corporal, tete-a-tete, trousseau, amendment, restaurant, bicycle, were, recipe, frontier, depot, process, recess, romance, tirade, essay, tarpaulin, won.

The above are in common use and of common abuse. Some of them of course come from our sister, France, and people are likely to say that they are not expected to pronounce foreign words correctly.--Texas School Journal.

A Natural Lighthouse.

Stromboli, one of the Lipari Islands, has constantly and usefully performed the function of a lighthouse for at least 2,000 years. Circular in outline, the island culminates in a conical shaped elevation, due to past volcanic agency, which rises to the height of 3,000 feet above sea level and is visible over an area having a radius of more than 100 miles. During the day masses of vapor are seen issuing from a point high up the mountain side, and at night successive displays of red light, varying in duration and intensity, somewhat resemble those of the gigantic flashlight on the coast. The flashes last from under one to over 20 minutes, gradually increasing to a ruddy glow and as gradually fading away.

This island is referred to by several very ancient writers as the great natural pharos of the western Mediterranean. Now it serves the same purpose for the constant stream of traffic passing to and from the French and Italian ports in the gulfs of Genoa and of Lyons, through the straits of Messina, for which Stromboli acts as a "leading" light. To such an extent is this the case that, although the principal islands of the Lipari archipelago are marked by lighthouses, nothing of the kind is placed upon Stromboli.

A Dream That Came True.

"Talking about dreams," said Mrs. Smith as we sat around the parlor, "I once had a very strange experience. I dreamed that I was just stepping out of my house for a walk when a funeral passed by. A man with a cap marked nine and a red scar running across his forehead jumped from the hearse and, approaching me, asked, 'Are you ready?' 'No,' I replied, and with that I awoke.

"A few months later I was stopping in Chicago. I was on the top floor of one of the big houses and just about to step into the elevator when I remembered another thing I wanted to buy. I stopped and looked through my notebook. 'Down!' exclaimed the elevator boy, and then asked me, 'Are you ready?' 'No,' I answered, and the door closed.

"The next instant a great crash was heard, and the occupants of the elevator were dashed to an untimely death. 'The cap of the boy bore the figure 9, and he had a red scar running across his brow.'--San Francisco Chronicle.

THE TEA TRADE

Of this town is growing—at least OUR TRADE is, growing in teas. We sell more now in one month than we used to in six. Possibly the good values for the money has had something to do with it. We have an excellent Ceylon and India Tea in packages for 60c pound—better grades of course, for 75, 90 and 1.00, while we have a fair grade of mixed tea at 40 and 50c pound.

J. W. Scott & Company

Condensed : Milk !

Nestle's Milk, 15 cents per can.

Guaranteed to be as good and go as far as any milk on the market, so the people say who have tried it.

W. L. Wharton & Co.

We have bought the entire stock of the Sample Brown Mercantile Co.

Bought cheap, it will be sold cheap.

Store open Friday morning.

S. L. Gilmer & Co

Gate City Bakery !

I am now opening up the Gate City Bakery, at 550 S. Elm Street. I am prepared to furnish all kinds of bread and fine cakes for special occasions. I have the best baker in the state and the best equipped bakery in town. Patrons will be served from a wagon on the street.

WADDELL & CO.

—Don't Worry—

Use KADOK—3 doses 10 cents, for headache and brain weariness. Use VICK'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS—25c, as a mild tonic laxative and liver regulator. Use VICK'S LACTATED TASTELESS CHILL TONIC—50c, assists digestion and breaks up chills and fevers, warranted. Trades supplied by RICHARDSON DRUG CO., Greensboro, N. C.

THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina: Rain tonight and Friday; preceded by fair in extreme east portion tonight fresh to brisk winds. Highest temperature for Greensboro for the past twenty-four hours ending eight o'clock this morning 96, lowest 67.

WHAT DO YOU GIVE?

Contributions Are in Order for the Galveston Sufferers.

Greensboro Lodge No. 76, A. F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication this evening at 8 o'clock. There will be work in the first degree.

The office of Mr. James E. Tomlinson, the mail transfer clerk at the depot, is being refitted. He will be enabled to dispatch his business with more ease.

The Gate City Band will accompany the Greensboro Elks to Danville on October 2d. A "warmer" crowd than the Greensboro contingent will not attend the carnival.

Wharton Brothers are gradually expanding their business. They have just added an up-to-date line of vocal and instrumental sheet music to their stock of books, stationery and picture frames.

Durham Herald: Greensboro was just on the point of purchasing the plant from the water company, but she will now probably do a little investigation on her own accord before doing so.

Mrs. O. E. Doak has moved into the J. S. Cobb house, on North Elm street, recently vacated by Republican headquarters. Judge Boyd's residence, which she vacates, will again be occupied by Judge and Mrs. Boyd after some repairs are made on the building.

A HOME WEDDING.

Mr. Shaw and Miss Cooper United in Marriage—Beautiful Presents.

A beautiful home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooper, at 203 Eugene street, last evening, when their daughter, Miss Juanita, was united in marriage to Mr. John T. B. Shaw. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Livingston Johnson, the pastor of the young couple, in the presence of the family and a few invited friends.

The attendants were: Mr. Frank A. Brooks and Miss Flora Cooper, and Mr. W. E. Blair and Miss Annie Boyce. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Nellie D. Elliot.

After the ceremony had been performed and congratulations extended, the wedding party repaired to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful presents.

Dr. Fox Buys Mrs. Taylor's Farm.

Dr. M. F. Fox, of Tabernacle, has purchased the residence and farm of Mrs. S. F. Taylor, of Guilford College, and will shortly move his family to that place. He will be the resident college physician. Mrs. Taylor will come to Greensboro and reside with her son, Mr. Fred N. Taylor.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals will be received until Monday, September 24th, 1900, at 1 p. m. for the erection of the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company's new office building, at Greensboro, N. C., agreeable to plans and specifications by Hook and Sawyer, architects, Charlotte, N. C. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company, or at the office of the architects. All proposals should be addressed to the undersigned. The successful contractor must give a satisfactory bond. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Greensboro Loan and Trust Co. 9-12 3t By J. W. Fry, President.

ADVERTISING AS CAPITAL.

A successful merchant says that when he first went into business his capital was strictly limited; but as he had observed that the men who advertised had the most trade, he resolved to set aside a part of his money for newspaper publicity. He is confident now that this amount was better placed than if it had been put into stock, and that in the long run it enabled him to invest more in his business than he could otherwise have done. "I would rather give up my display windows than my newspaper advertisements," he says.
